That The World May Know

That The World May Know helps you understand Scripture through the historical and cultural world in which God placed it. This series draws from leading scholars in archaeology, history, geography, and biblical studies to illuminate the world of the Bible and the message God gave His people. You will see how God has always called His people to be a transforming presence in their culture, and how understanding the Bible in its original context equips us to follow Him faithfully today. This class offers rich teaching, thoughtful discussion, and a deeper grasp of God's Word.

Led by Tyler and Teri Solt | Meets in the Fireside Room

The Real God

The Real God is a study designed to help you see God as He truly reveals Himself in Scripture. Many of the struggles we face come from misunderstandings about who God is. This series explores seven core attributes of God's character, addressing common misconceptions and replacing them with the truth of His goodness, love, and holiness. As you grow in your understanding of who God really is, you will find your faith strengthened and your relationship with Him deepened.

Led by Bill & Merrilee Chapman | Meets in Activity Center Room A4

Sundays 9:30–10:30AM | January 11–March 29

The Practices: Fasting and Solitude

This class focuses on two deeply formative practices that draw us closer to God in real and practical ways. Fasting invites us to integrate our whole selves—body, mind, and spirit—into seeking God with greater dependence and clarity. Solitude mirrors the rhythm of Jesus, who regularly withdrew from the noise to be with the Father so He could return to community in love and strength. In this class, we will learn about these practices and also experience them together. Understanding is important, but practice is where transformation begins.

Led by Justin Linscheid & Dave Blicharz | Activity Center Room A2

Promised Land

Promised Land brings Scripture to life by exploring major themes from Exodus through Judges. Through beautifully produced dramatizations, you will hear key passages narrated by actors portraying biblical figures such as Moses, Aaron, Joshua, Caleb, and Deborah. Each session places the biblical story in its cultural, social, and geographic context, widening your understanding of God's work among His people. This series helps you see the Old Testament with fresh eyes and invites you to know God more deeply through His unfolding story of redemption.

Led by Lise Bachman-Karnes | Meets in Activity Center Room A3
